Overview for Responsible Governance Policies and Design Review Building Guidelines

Below are two sections of proposed text to be included in the revision of the Regulations. These are being posted for owner comment. Please contact Patty Greeves at pattygreevesaia@gmail.com with any comments or questions.

Responsible Governance Policies

The Arrowhead Improvements Association, Inc, (AIA) as a Colorado homeowners association is governed by a Colorado Statute known as the Colorado Common Interest Ownership Act, commonly referred to as CCIOA. The many parts of CCIOA address the management and operation of homeowners' associations.

As such, the AIA is required to have nine (9) written responsible governance policies and procedures on the following topics:

1. Conflict of Interest Policy: CLICK HERE to review proposed changes.
2. Conduct of Meeting Policy: CLICK HERE to review proposed changes.
3. Policy of Dispute Resolution between Association and Owners: CLICK HERE to review proposed changes.
4. Records Inspection and Production Policy: CLICK HERE to review proposed changes.
5. Investment Policy: CLICK HERE to review proposed changes.
6. Dues Collection Policy: CLICK HERE to review proposed changes.
7. Procedures for the Adoption and Amendment of Policies, Procedures, Rules and Regulations: CLICK HERE to review proposed changes.
8. Reserve Study: CLICK HERE to review proposed changes.
9. Enforcement of Covenants and Rules – the enforcement policy will be posted at a later time.

The first eight (8) of these documents were written between 2012- 2014. AIA Attorney, Jacob With from Law of the Rockies felt several of these policies needed updating.

Design Review Regulations

During September and October 2018, the Design Review Committee (DRC) and the Board of Directors (Board) further reviewed the Design Review Regulations for Arrowhead. After receiving owner input from the prior posting of the DRC Regulations, The Board and the DRC recognize that homeowners and site owners' needs have changed and are therefore proposing the amendments described below. CLICK HERE to review proposed changes.
